PRICE THREE CENTS

INCREASE GIVEN POSTAL EMPLOYEES

Advance in Salaries of About $200
A Year Provided in Bill Passed by Congress.

CITY CARRIERS BENEFITED

Clerks and Rural Mail Carriers Also to Receive More Pay Under New Measure.

Employees of the local postoffice are eagerly awaiting the details of the new bill which has been passed by congress providing substantial increases in the salaries of the post-office employees throughout the country. The measure has passed both branches of the congress and is now before the President for his signature. As the provisions of the bill were thoroughly discussed before action was taken it is believed that the President will affix his signature at an early date.

The bill provides for increases of about $200 a year for all clerks and carriers. Every employee in the local office with the exception of Allen Swope, postmaster, will be benefited. The measure did not include the postmasters who are not regarded as employees in the strict sense of the word.

Clerk and city carriers will receive under the new bill about $1,400 a year as a basic wage. Clerk and carriers begin their service in Grade 1 and then are advanced each year. Each advance brings a higher salary. Under the present law the basic salary for clerk and carriers is $1,200 and $100 increase each year until the maximum of $1,400 is reached. For the last two or three years, however, the postoffice department has allowed bonuses of from $100 to $150 a year for employees in the advanced classes.

Under the new law clerks and carriers will receive $1,400 as a basic salary. Grade 2 employees will receive $1,500; grade 3, $1,600; grade 4, $1,700, and grade 5, $1,800.

Rural mail carriers will also receive an advance of about $200 a year. Their basic pay under the new law is $1,800 on standard routes of twenty-four miles with $30 for each additional route. The routes out of the local office average about twenty-nine miles.

The local employees have not yet received the details of the new bill, but expect to have them in their possession within the next few days.

CHARLES SAUER, WIDELY KNOWN CITIZEN, DEAD

Owner of Cooper Shop for Many Years, Expires Late Today,
After Long Illness.

Charles Sauer, widely known citizen, died late this afternoon at his home on South street, following an illness of several weeks with heart disease. For several weeks his condition was critical. Mr. Sauer was about sixty-eight years old and lived in this vicinity all his life.

Mr. Sauer was the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Sauer, of Washington township. His father was the founder of the Lutheran church in Washington township, which bears his name. In early manhood Mr. Sauer came to Seymour and for many years conducted a cooper shop manufacturing thousands of barrels a year. He held contracts with many large firms throughout the middle west and the shop was one of the largest in this part of the state. He was married to Miss Elizabeth Noelker, who survives him.

Mr. Sauer was one of the most widely known citizens in Seymour and was highly respected. His death will be a distinct loss to the large circle of friends. He was a member of the Lutheran Evangelical church in this city.

The funeral arrangements will be announced tomorrow.

LOCAL TEACHERS PLAN VACATIONS

Number of Instructors Here Will Attend Normal Schools During The Summer.

FACULTY CHANGES NEXT YEAR

Mrs. Forest Wildman Has Gone to Switzerland and Miss Sena Sutherland Sails for France.

Since the close of the school year here a week ago the teachers have completed all their work which was incidental to the conclusion of the term and are giving their attention to vacation plans. Some of the instructors in the city schools arranged in advance of the close of the term to attend normal school or to pursue their education in universities and colleges in various parts of the country.

Of the teachers who were employed here last year two will spend the summer abroad. Miss Sena Sutherland, instructor in French in the High School, and Mrs. Forest Wildman, instructor in English and Latin, have already sailed. Miss Sutherland will continue the study of French in France and take advantage of the trip to become better acquainted with the customs of the French people.

Mrs. Wildman, whose home is at Greensburg, came here about the middle of the year to accept a position which was created by a resignation. Her husband is taking an advance course of study in Switzerland and she will spend the summer there with him. It is not likely that Mrs. Wildman will return here next winter.

Miss Mary Misch, primary teacher, and Miss Flo Beldon will take a course at Columbia University during the summer. Miss Misch will not be employed here next year, having accepted a position with the Indianapolis schools.

A number of teachers expect to spend a month or so during the vacation season at normal schools and colleges in Indiana. Their work will be arranged so that it will be helpful to them and at the same time they will enjoy the new surroundings.

Many of the teachers in the township schools have already gone to normal schools. The Indiana educational law requires teachers to attend normal school or college for a certain period before they are entitled to their license and many of the instructors in the district schools take advantage of the vacation to meet this requirement.

The teachers for the city schools next year have not been selected, and the list may not be completed for a month or more. That several vacancies will occur is certain now, but T. A. Mott, superintendent, has not decided definitely upon those who will be employed. The most changes, it is said, will come in the high school department.

Motor Trucks to be Used Extensively by Growers to Get Melons to City Markets.

The yield of watermelons and canteloupes in Jackson county will be larger this season than for several years, according to growers who base their estimates upon the condition of the plants. The melon fields are said to be in splendid condition, although in some sections insects have caused considerable trouble and a small loss. Growers are tending the fields with exacting care at this time because of the insect menace but they do not believe that it will prove serious.

The watermelon and canteloupe acreage is probably larger than for a number of years. The prices last season were exceptionally high and as there is no indication that the market will be much lower this year the growers have engaged in the business on a very large scale. The

BOTH HOUSES HAVE DAY OF ACTIVITY

Action on Two Appropriation Bills Necessary Before Adjournment Tomorrow.

MERCHANT MARINE BILL

Urgent Deficiency and District of Columbia Appropriations
Must Be Made.

By United Press.
Washington, June 4.—Congress today still had two appropriation bills on which action is necessary before it adjourns tomorrow afternoon.

Unless these bills are acted upon before adjournment, President Wilson may call an extra session. Informing congress yesterday that he would interpose no objection to adjournment at this time, he stipulated that all appropriation bills must be passed.

The two appropriation bills are the urgent deficiency bill and the district of Columbia bill. The conference report is to come up for adoption in both house and senate today. The urgent deficiency bill which has been passed by the house must now be acted upon by the senate.

The house today and tomorrow expects to act finally on the merchant marine bill, the resolution declaring against an Armenian mandate, and the Kahn resolution calling for an investigation of the escape of Grover Cleveland Bergdall, a wealthy draft evader.

The senate also has the merchant marine bill to act on. In addition, it will take up the bill increasing pay of postal employees and a resolution continuing the present campaign expenditures investigating committee. The senate has no intention at present of acting on the soldier bonus bill.

ADDITIONAL $200,000 IS UNCOVERED BY COMMITTEE

Further Investigation of Campaign
Expenses of Major General
Leonard Wood.

By United Press.
Washington, June 4.—The senate campaign expenditures committee today was told of an additional fund of more than $200,000 raised for General Leonard Wood's presidential campaign. The Wood fund had been placed at approximately $1,800,000 by A. A. Sprague, national treasurer of the Wood campaign.

Today Horace Stebbins, eastern treasurer of the Wood campaign and also connected with the Leonard Wood League, told the committee of other collections and disbursements which he indicated that Sprague did not know. Some of Stebbins' figures overlapped those given by Sprague and the committee had difficulty in separating them in examining Stebbins' records.

Senator Pomerene asked if the total accounted for would not increase the fund for Wood by $288,494.40.

"I don't think so," replied the witness.

PROCTOR AT HEAD OF WOOD CAMPAIGN

Candidate Says Reports of a Change
Are "Enemy Propaganda"
Without Atom of Truth.

ASKS ONLY FOR FAIR PLAY

Johnson Tells Callers He is "Ticked to Pieces With The Political Situation.

By United Press.

Chicago, June 4.—"Enemy propaganda without an atom of truth in it," was General Leonard Wood's comment today on reports originating here that he had "fired" Col. William Proctor as chairman of his campaign committee and had put Frank Hitchcock in full charge of his campaign.

"A change in the management of the campaign has not even been considered," continued Wood. "The whole business is enemy propaganda intended to cause dissention and distrust. Col. Proctor is chairman of the campaign committee and will continue right through."

Wood said all he wants from his opponents is "fair play and no favoritism."

He declared that when source of the propaganda became apparent, it would help, not hurt him. He declined to fix responsibility for the propaganda.

Senator Hiram Johnson told callers at his headquarters today that he is "ticked to pieces with the situation."

Johnson said the reception he received when he arrived here yesterday was typical of the "response all over the country, not to an individual but to the things that he had been preaching for a year."

WOOD LEADS WITH JOHNSON SECOND

Shift in Standing Throws Californians
One Vote Ahead of the Ohio
Governor.

BUTLER IN THIRD PLACE

Seventy-three Votes Still Contested to Be Decided by the Republican National Committee.

By United Press.

Chicago, June 4.—Realignment of Republican presidential aspirants reported over night apparently had given Senator Johnson a margin of one over Governor Frank O. Lowden, despite the fact the latter had gained more votes than any other candidate in the present hearing of contests.

This is the first time in months that the unofficial "dope sheet" kept by political observers showed Johnson leading Lowden, although but few votes have separated them at any time. Major General Leonard Wood continued to maintain his comfortable lead. The present indicated standing of Republican candidates for presidential nomination exclusive of 73 votes still contested was:

Wood, 248; Johnson, 167; Lowden, 166; Nicholas Murray Butler, 88; Governor William O. Sproul, 76; Senator Warren G. Harding, 48; Governor Calvin Coolidge, 49; Judge J. C. Pritchard, 22; Senator Howard Sutherland, 16; Senator Miles Poindexter, 14; Jacob L. Hamon, 14.

In the matter of delegates won through decisions on contests the apparent score to date was:

Lowden 22; Wood 17; Pritchard 17; Johnson 2; Hamon 2.

Because some losing candidates were uninstructed and others were backing the same candidate as the winning delegates, the score of delegates lost fell far short of the total tabulated as "won" the losses were believed to be apportioned as follows:

Wood 26; Lowden 9; Hamon 2.

The Wood organization has counted on polling 396 votes on the first ballot; the Lowden people 280 and the Johnsonites a modest 254. This survey was made before the contest hearings began. It was apparent, however, that with the present strength granted them by many political observers, none of them could hope to poll anything like the foregoing figures on the initial ballot even should Wood or Lowden make a clean sweep of the remaining contests. Political "maneuvering" contest decisions, "outside influences" and just plain trades cause such daily, and even hourly fluctuations in the situation that even the political observers closest within the confidence of the practical politicians cannot acquaint themselves fully with the changing conditions.

Contest hearings scheduled for today included the report of the subcommittee which reviewed the evidence in the 15 Georgia cases the 12 Mississippi district delegates and the Fourth Oklahoma district which went to a sub-committee late yesterday.

WORK ON DIAMONDS DELAYED BY RAIN

Athletic Association Had Expected to Start Preparation of Ball Grounds Today.

STOCK SALE SATISFACTORY

Fred Able, President, Reports Solicitors Fel Assured of Financial Support.

With stock to the value of approximately $2,500 already pledged and the sale of much more assured, the officers of the Athletic Association had planned to start work on the preparation of the baseball grounds on the Blish lots today. The rain this morning interfered with the arrangements, however, and the work will be necessarily delayed. Fred Able, president of the Association, is giving personal attention to the sale of stock, and stated that the financial support up to this time is quite satisfactory and that the officers feel much encouraged with the progress that has been made.

Mr. Able said that the solicitors who have charge of the sale of stock expected to complete their task yesterday but several of the men were out of the city and that pledges would be taken the rest of this week. While the amount of stock already subscribed for will not be sufficient to finance the proposition in its entirety it is enough to justify the completion of the ball grounds.

"Probably half of the people who are expected to buy stock have been seen by the committee," said Mr. Able. "The response has been quite satisfactory and we are more than pleased with the progress the association has made to date. Of course, the money already pledged will not be sufficient to get the grounds in readiness, build the grandstand and complete all the plans we have in mind, but we feel sure that at least another $2,000 can be easily raised. The public is showing a genuine interest in the proposition and this counts for everything in an undertaking of this kind."

A sample of the uniforms which will be worn by the local players has arrived and has been seen by many "fans." The blouse and trousers are made of gray flannel and are trimmed in red. The stockings will be red and white. The cap is made to match the suit. It is expected that the order for the suits will be given in a few days when Louis H. Becker, manager of the ball club, gets a better idea of the men who will be members of the team.

The finance committee emphasizes that more money will be needed and that the solicitation will be continued until the necessary amount is subscribed. The fans are anxious for games, however, and the first work will be done on the grounds so that a partial schedule may be arranged. Assurance is given that several contests will be given the latter part of this month or the first of next. Candidates for the local team are practicing regularly so they will be in form for the first exhibition.

A meeting of the Athletic Association will be held tonight at the city building, it is announced. The work of the committees will be presented and the by-laws will be ratified. The officers of the association desire a large attendance at this session.

Do you realize the Versatility of BREAD

Of course, you know of its goodness, its wholesomeness and its food value. That's why you serve bread three times a day.

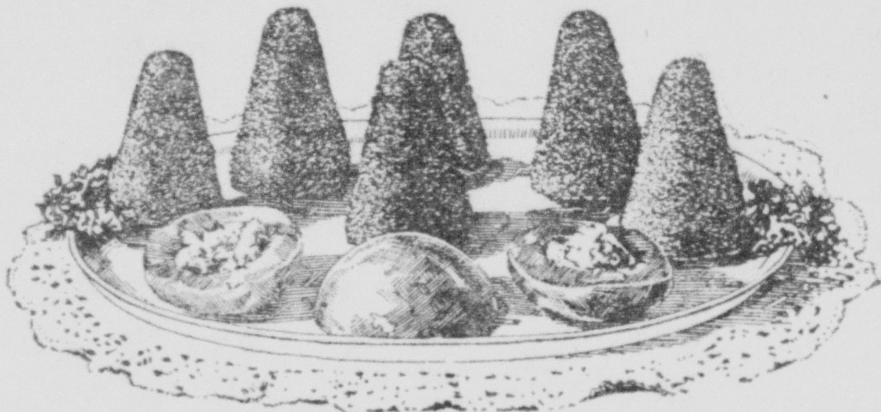

That's why you allow the kiddies to eat as much bread as they want. But, do you know the many dainty dishes that can be made with Star bread?

Here is an exceptionally appetizing one:

STAR BREAD CROQUETTES WITH PEACHES

2 cups stale bread crumbs	1 tablespoon melted butter
1/2 cup blanched and chopped almonds	1 cup milk
1 teaspoon grated lemon rind	2 eggs
1 tablespoon lemon juice	1 teaspoon salt

Lesson 10 June 6 Second Quarter SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

SAUL'S FAILURE.—1 Sam. 1:15.

GOLDEN TEXT.—For thou has rejected the word of the Lord, and the Lord hath rejected thee.—1 Sam. 15:26.

ADDITIONAL MATERIAL.—1 Sam. 14:47-52.

PRIMARY TOPIC—A King Who Disobeyed God.
JUNIOR TOPIC—How Saul Lost His Kingdom.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Why Saul Failed.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Strength and Weakness of Saul's Character.

This is one of the saddest pictures in Bible history. No one has had a brighter prospect before him than Saul, yet no one has made a greater failure. He possessed strong natural gifts, the qualities of a great king. He had a fine physique, which greatly favors one's success in life, other things being equal. He had the benefit of Samuel's advice and godly life, which was of inestimable value.

I. The Command to Saul (vv. 1-3).
He is commanded to utterly exterminate the Amalekites, leaving neither people nor booty. The reason assigned is their evil treatment of Israel as they came up out of Egypt (Ex. 17:8; Deut. 25:17). This command may seem cruel, but we must remember that it was given by the Lord, who has the right to kill or to make alive. The wickedness of this people was very great. Their judgment was only such as their sin deserved. It was not Israel's act, but God's, Israel only being the sword in his hand.

II. The Disobedience of Saul (vv. 4-9).
He renders a partial obedience. Agag, the king, is spared and the best of the goods is appropriated. The purpose of God's thoroughgoing command was to show that it was a warfare of judgment for wickedness, not for greed. Saul only obeyed as far as his inclinations led him. The obedience to God which is limited by the heart's inclination is the worst kind of obedience.

III. Saul Rebuked by Samuel (vv. 10-23).

1. Samuel cried to God (v. 11). The news of this disgraceful act greatly disturbed Samuel, causing him to cry to the Lord all night.

2. Saul's hypocritical pretense (vv. 15, 16). Saul met Samuel with the pretense of having executed the Lord's commandment. This pretense carried a lie upon its face. Those who are the most willing to speak of their obedience are the ones who are conscious of disobedience, and their consciences trouble them over it. Though disturbed by a guilty conscience he tried to conciliate Samuel, the prophet, but the very blessing of the sheep and the lowing of the herds betrayed him. Thus betrayed, he tried to shift the blame upon the people (v. 15). This is always the way. It matters not what the crime may be, some excuse can be made for it. He then played the hypocrite by trying to make it pass as an act of devotion to God (v. 15). He should have known that things gained by disobedience to God are an abomination to him. Offerings to God of ill-gotten gains can never atone for sins of disobedience and neglect. Saul tried to justify himself by pleading that he was keeping the spirit of the commandment, while not literally carrying out its requirements. He has many successors today who do not believe in the literal interpretation and practice of God's Word.

3. Samuel rehearses before Saul God's dealing with him (vv. 17-23).

Samuel met this hypocrisy by bringing him to square face his sin. God is more concerned in having his subjects render obedience unto his commandments than he is for them to offer unto him sacrifices. Such an act when the heart is in rebellion is as incense to God as wither and idleness.

IV. The Judgment upon Saul (vv. 28-35).

For the presumptuous offering of sacrifice the dynasty passed from Saul's house, and for this act of flagrant disobedience the kingdom is rent from him. It is taken from Saul and given to his neighbor, who is better than he. He confessed his sin and begged Samuel to still honor him before the elders of the people. This further shows his self-centered life. His honor was more to him than the glory of God. Samuel forsook him and left him alone to suffer in disgrace. He refused to punish the Amalekite (1 Sam. 1:10). Unless we slay our enemies they will slay us. Judgment shall come sooner or later upon those who sin, for "the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord." (Rom. 6:23).

DIRECTORS OF FARMERS' FEDERATION TO MEET JUNE 7

Numerous Activities of Interest to Farmers Will Be Discussed.

By United Press.

Indianapolis, Ind., June 4.—An official call for the quarterly meeting of the officers and board of directors of the Indiana Federation of Farmers' Associations has been issued by General Secretary Lewis Taylor to be held at headquarters in this city on Monday, June 7. The session will be an important business meeting at which numerous activities of interest to farmers will be discussed and will be presided over by President John G. Brown, of Monon.

A mistaken impression has been circulated to the effect that the board meeting would take up the question of what attitude should be assumed toward B. F. Bitter, editor of the Farmer's Guide, published at Huntington, who is alleged to have misrepresented proceedings at the recent state-wide conference of county officials when the Bitter affair was fully discussed. On the contrary, the board of directors have dropped the Huntington editor from their deliberations and are leaving the entire matter up to the committee of ten representative farmers, one from each district of the Federation, to investigate the

MRS. ALICE GRESHAM DODD, mother of the first American soldier killed in France, who gives entire credit for recovery of her health to the well-known medicine Tanlac.

The following remarkable endorsement of Tanlac was given recently by Mrs. Alice Gresham Dodd, of the Gresham Memorial Home, Gavin Park, Evansville, Ind., which home was presented to her by the patriotic people of Indiana, as evidence of their appreciation of the services rendered to his country by her son, Corporal James B. Gresham, the first American soldier killed in France. Expressions of sympathy were received by Mrs. Dodd from all parts of the United States, and the newspapers of the country carried the story of the first "war mother."

The shock of her son's death resulted in the serious breakdown of Mrs. Dodd's health, but everyone will learn with interest and pleasure that she is now in splendid health again. When seen at her home recently she made the following statement, giving the entire credit for her recovery to the well-known medicine, Tanlac.

"After my dear boy's death, I had a general breakdown in health," said Mrs. Dodd. "At first it was just indigestion. My food used to upset me and I had to diet myself very carefully, which wasn't much hardship as I lost all desire to eat. Then I had an attack of rheumatism, with severe pains in my shoulders, back and arms. Sometimes I used to suffer a great deal, and my joints would get all swollen up and stiff. I was able to do very little about the house, and at times couldn't even cook a meal. I got very nervous and restless, and at night would lay awake for hours, and lost many a night's sleep as a consequence.

"A friend of mine had received a great deal of help from Tanlac, and it was she who advised me to try it. I am so glad I did for it proved the best medicine I have ever taken. It soon gave me a good appetite and seemed to settle my stomach so that I was no longer troubled with indigestion. I don't know what it is to have rheumatic pains now, the swelling and stiffness has all gone out of my joints and I am able to do the work of the house with the greatest ease. My nerves are now steady and strong, I sleep fine at night, and I feel better in health than ever before in my life. I shall always be grateful for what Tanlac has done for me, and shall recommend it every chance I get."

Tanlac is sold in Seymour by Maxon's Pharmacy, and in Crothersville by C. W. Taulman, and in Brownstown by Chas. Brock.

charges of mismanagement filed by the former.

W. H. Newsom, of Bartholomew county, is chairman of the investigating committee, and is conducting the probe in all fairness to all parties involved in the controversy. Officers of the Federation and district directors are taking no part in this investigation which will cover the entire twenty-six pages of allegations as set out by Mr. Bitter or any additional charges he or any other persons may make. A finding in the matter will be made public about the middle of the month.

STORM RAISED OVER THAT $5,000 HAT

American Designers Wonder What Sort of Reception Will Be Given Them in Paris.

By United Press.

New York, June 4.—What sort of a reception French milliners are going to give them, is a question American purveyors of feminine headgear are asking one another. Fifth Avenue creators of women's fashions in hats and some from other large cities of the country, who must go to Paris for their Fall "French models," are curious to know just how much of their "Fourteen Points" the French milliners are going to put into effect.

It all happened when the Americans tried to be chummy and make Mme. Deschanel, wife of the French president, a present of a $5,000 "Yankee" hat. The French answered that the American hat makers had taken unfair advantage of them during the trying days of the war; that the Americans couldn't design a hat Mme. Deschanel would wear, any how—or words to that effect; and intimated that if the Americans thought they could, the French were going to let them "go to it."

Whether this means the French are going to "hold out" on their best models when the American millinery buyers arrive, the builders of the Deschanel hat are not sure. But, the first crusader, in the person of Milton Wolf of Josephs—Fifth Avenue—has sailed for Paris to find out.

Wolf bears the distinction of having drawn the specifications for the $5,000 headpiece France's First Lady refused to wear, so it is only fitting that he should have been the one to invade the hornets' nest Paris milliners have threatened to make their city where American milliners are concerned.

WORKS HARD TO AVERT FLU EPIDEMIC

Government and City Health Officials Warn People to Keep Clean.

Stay Away from People with Coughs and Colds.

"Avoid crowds if you want to avoid influenza," says Association for Improving the Conditions of New York.

Keep your hands clean, drink plenty of fresh water; sleep with windows open; eat three uniform meals a day including a good breakfast.

People who have catarrh or frequent colds invite Influenza, declares a prominent Kentucky druggist.

The membrane of the throat and nose is raw, sore and tender, and makes a lovely abiding place for germs to thrive and multiply.

He advises an inexpensive home-made remedy that will bring relief in less than a day and will stop all discharge and soothe and heal the inflamed membrane in a few days.

Thousands are making this beneficial remedy at home and anyone who has catarrh or a cold can do the same.

Four three-quarters of an ounce of Mentholized Arcline in a pint bottle, then fill the bottle with water that has been boiled.

Gargle the throat as directed and snuff or spray the liquid into the nostrils twice daily. It's a simple way to get rid of cold and catarrh and keeps the nasal passage and throat clean and healthy.

Nearly all druggists dispense Mentholized Arcline in vials containing exactly three-quarters of an ounce, which is all you need to make a pint of this healthful medicine.

Fordson TRADE MARK Farm Tractor

More than one-third of the tractors in use in the United States are Fordsons, yet the Fordson has only been on the market two years. Just like the Ford car, the Fordson is an all year utility. It is a compact tractor; it is easily operated, it has more power per pound weight than any other tractor manufactured, it is the lowest priced tractor and it is the most economical to operate.

There are more than seven thousand Fordson dealers in the United States. There is one in every community who not only sells Fordsons but who carries a supply of Fordson parts for repairs and replacements with skilled mechanics to give dependable service, and to help the farmer get the best out of the Fordson tractor.

The demand for Fordson tractors is greater than the supply. There is only a limited number for each territory. Get your order in now. Orders are filled in the order received.

The VALLEY of the GIANTS

By PETER B. KYNE
Author of "Cappy Ricks"

Copyright by Peter B. Kyne

He bowed his head in rage and shame at his defeat. Buck Ogilvy took him by the arm. "Bryce, old chap, this is one of those occasions where silence is golden. Speak not. I'll do it for you. Miss Summer," he continued, "and Colonel Pennington," favoring that triumphant rascal with an equally gracious bow, "we leave you in possession of the field—temporarily. However, if anybody should drive up in a back and lean out and ask you, just tell him Buck Ogilvy has another trump tucked away in his kimono."

Bryce turned to go, but with a sudden impulse Shirley laid her hand on his arm—his left arm. "Bryce!" she murmured.

He lifted her hand gently from his forearm, led her to the front of the locomotive, and held her hand up to the headlight. Her fingers were crimson with blood.

"Your uncle's killer did that, Shirley," he said ironically. "It's only a slight flesh wound, but that is no fault of your allies. Good-night."

And he left her standing, pale of face and trembling, in the white glare of the headlight.

He walked to his car and climbed into it. Ogilvy remained merely long enough to give orders to the foreman to gather up the tools, store them in the machine-shop of Cardigan's mill and dismiss his gang; then he, too, entered the automobile, and at a word from Bryce, the car slid noiselessly away into the darkness. The track-cutting crew departed a few minutes later, and when Shirley found herself alone with her uncle, the tumult in her heart gave way to the tears she could no longer repress. Pennington stood by, watching her curiously, coldly.

Presently Shirley mastered her emotion and glanced toward him.

"Well, my dear?" he queried.

"I—I think I had better go home," she said without spirit.

"I think so, too," he answered. "Get into the mayor's flivver, my dear, and I'll drive you. And perhaps the least said about this affair the better, Shirley. There are many things that you do not understand and which cannot be elucidated by discussion."

"I can understand an attempt at assassination, Uncle Seth."

"That blackguard Minore! I should have known better than to put him on such a job. I told him to bluff and threaten; Cardigan, I knew, would realize the grudge the Black Minore has against him, and for that reason I figured the greaser was the only man who could bluff him. While I gave him orders to shoot, I told him distinctly not to hit anybody. Good Lord, Shirley, surely you do not think I would wink at a murder!"

"I do," she answered passionately. "With Bryce Cardigan out of the way you would have a clear field before you—"

"Oh, my dear, my dear! Surely you do not realize what you are saying. You are beside yourself, Shirley. Please—please do not wound me so—so horribly. I am surrounded by enemies—the most implacable enemies. They force me to fight the devil with fire—and here you are, giving them aid and comfort."

"I want you to defeat Bryce Cardigan, if you can do it fairly."

"At another time and in a calmer mood we will discuss that villain," he said authoritatively. "Get into the car, and we will go home. There is nothing more to be done tonight."

"Your sophistry does not alter my opinion," she replied firmly. "However, as you say, this is neither the time nor the place to discuss it."

They drove home in silence. Shirley went at once to her room. For the Colonel, however, the night's work had the man out of bed. Then he returned quietly to his room, dressed and packed a bag for his journey, left a brief note for Shirley notifying her of his departure, and started on his two hundred and fifty-mile trip over the mountains to the south. As his car sped through sleeping Sequoia and gained the open country, the Colonel's heart thrilled pleasantly. He held cards and spades, big and little casino, four aces and the joker; therefore he knew he could sweep the board at his pleasure. And during his absence Shirley would have opportunity to cool off, while he would find time to formulate an argument to null her suspicions upon his return.

Jack's Reading Room.

The men's quarters on our new battleships are more luxurious than the Admiral's quarters of fifty years ago. This is a corner in the reading room of the U. S. S. New Mexico. A big library and complete file of current magazines, as well as newspapers from all the large cities, help to take care of any stormy hours when Jack may not prefer to be on deck.

A good title for this picture would be, "Why boys leave home," and the best part of it is that they come back real men.
